The President's Message

Dear Freshmen,

I am pleased to extend to you a warm and friendly welcome. You, along with thousands of other young people, are entering a new and enlightening experience; one which I hope will prepare you for the difficult years ahead.

The future, like the present, will be filled with new challenges, questions and issues which defy easy solution. You will be asked to help find answers. Mansfield wishes to help you prepare to meet this pressing task.

The Age of Space, world political upheaval, the population explosion, automation; these are but a few of the issues which demand new approaches, and educational adjustments.

The administration and faculty of Mansfield strive for adjustment to changing times. As we try to meet new trends, so you must assume new responsibilities. No longer may personal wishes, activities, hobbies be elevated above the basic principles of academic education. The primary concern of college students must be directed increasingly toward scholastic attainment based on the concepts of liberal education.

Lest I sound too solemn, let me assure you that today as in the past your college experience will also include a full share of pleasant moments. Increasing emphasis on scholarship does not mean an end to personal associations, or to social and other extra-curricular activities which go to make a full college experience.

May your years at MSC then be congenial as well as profitable and may your future memories of Mansfield be pleasant ones.

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, reading "Louis W. Rathgeber". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, stylized initial "L".

MANSFIELD HAIL

WILL GEORGE BUTLER
Mansfield '97

Old Mansfield, high upon the eastern hill,
Dear Mansfield, hail to thee!
Thy loyal sons and daughters with a will
Salute in melody.
We bring a laurel wreath of praise,
And pledge our love thro' all the days;
Our Alma Mater, dear, all hail to thee!
Old Mansfield, hail to thee!

The world is better for the beacon light
Which thou has shed abroad,
Strong hearts are stronger for the testing fight
That leads men up to God.
In all the varied walks of life, in peaceful paths
and stress of strife,
We find thy sons and daughters true to thee,
Old Mansfield, hail to thee!

We never can forget the days we've spent
Within thy hallowed walls.
We'll learn sometime what all your lessons meant
When larger duty calls .

THE COLLEGE

In 1857, the Mansfield Classical Seminary opened with a registration of 105 students. Four months later, the original building burned. The first South Hall was then constructed on the site. It was completed in 1859.

In 1862, the Seminary was converted by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania into the Normal School of the Fifth District.

Student teaching began in 1871. In 1926, the Normal School was authorized to confer the degree of Bachelor of Science in Elementary and Secondary Education. A year later, the name of the institution was changed to Mansfield State Teachers College.

Indicating a broadened concept of professional preparation, the Pennsylvania Legislature on January 8, 1960 authorized the title Mansfield State College.

Since it was authorized to grant the B. S. in Education, Mansfield has expanded its curriculum to include the special fields of Music Education, Home Economics Education and Library Science.

The present campus consisting of 14 principal buildings attractively set in 75 rolling acres is due for considerable expansion in the near future. An approved six year, six million dollar building program will include new dormitories, a new infirmary and a field house.

Present enrollment of 1050 will increase as fast as these buildings are completed.

The college conducts two artists courses — the assembly course and the auditorium course. The assembly course is designed to vary the student participating activities of the assembly period; the auditorium course is intended to provide cultural experiences on a high level. The college attempts to secure the finest lecturers, musicians, dancers, and actors obtainable; and during the past seasons has been fortunate in scheduling such attractions as: Eleanor Roosevelt, Victor Reisel, Vincent Price, The Rochester Philharmonic, and the Kai Winding Septet. Admission to these programs is covered by the student activity fee.

EXTRA-CLASS POINT SYSTEM

The extra-class point system at Mansfield State College aims to distribute responsibilities and honors in extra-class activities among the maximum number of students, to assist students in balancing their class and extra-class activities, to develop competent leadership in the student body, and to promote efficiency in each activity.

For the accomplishment of these purposes, each recognized extra-class activity office has been assigned a certain value in points, ranging from one to ten, the number being determined by the amount of work entailed by that activity.

No student may carry more than ten points per year and no student may serve as president of more than one organization at a time.

Extra-class points are not credited toward academic standing.

The point system is administered by a member of the Student Council. It shall be the duty of this member to enforce the point system to record all activities of students in card catalogs containing a card for each student.

The secretaries of all student groups must submit lists of all members and all officers within one week after organization in the fall and within two days after admissions or elections whenever these occur during the year.

Anti-Litter Campaign

To help preserve at all times the beauty of the MSC campus, an anti-littering campaign went in to effect at the start of the 1961-62 academic year. A $5.00 littering fine will be strictly enforced by security officers.

ACADEMIC

Marking and Point System

Grade	Interpretation	Quality Points
A	Excellent	4
B	Superior	3
C	Average	2
D	Passing	1
E	Incomplete
F	Failure	0

The following definitions are used in special situations:

WP	Withdrew from course (passing at time)
WF	Withdrew from course (failing at time)
S	Satisfactory
U	Unsatisfactory
Ex	Credit by Examination
Aud	Audited

An E grade must be made up during the next semester when laboratory practice is not necessary. In case specific laboratory techniques are involved the E grade must be made up the semester the course is next scheduled. All E grades not removed according to these instructions shall automatically become F grades.

Quality Point Requirements

1. For graduation a 2.0 average (C) is required.
2. If a student has a point average below 2.0 (C) in any semester of a cumulative point average below 2.0 (C), his case shall be referred to the dean of instruction. He may request the withdrawal of the student from college.
3. Failure to achieve a cumulative point average of 2.0 (C) by the end of the sophomore year will necessitate a request for withdrawal from the college.
4. For student teaching a 2.0 (C) average is needed in both the major and minor fields.

Dropping Subjects and Changing Courses

1. No course shall be dropped without a penalty grade of F after the third week of a semester beginning at the day of registration; before such time, the student may secure the approval of the department, and the dean of instruction for withdrawal.
2. A student who desires to transfer from his department must secure the written consent of the director of the department, the director of the department to which transfer is requested and, if under 21, from his parents, subject to the approval of the dean of instruction.
3. Students are classified according to the number of semester hour credits earned according to this scale:

Less than 29 credits .. freshman classification

30 - 61 credits ..... sophomore classification

62 - 94 credit ..... junior classification

95 or more credits ..... senior classification

Additional Work

Students who wish to carry from one to three hours of work beyond the regular program must:

(a) Make a 3.0 average

(b) Secure in advance the written approval of the director of their department, and the dean of instruction. These conditions cannot be met in the first semester of residence.

Absences

Responsibility rests with the individual student for a number of absences equal to the number of semester hours for which a course is offered. Students must not assume the absences equal to the amount of semester hours a course is offered are granted without justifiable cause. These absences are granted to cover emergencies. The absence system was not meant to give the student unwarranted absences from classes. Absence from class for reasons others than justifiable ones is regarded as evidence of neglect and indifference on the part of the student. Any subsequent absences must be justifiable by evidence of a legitimate illness or equally justifiable cause to prevent loss of credit.

Students are urged to have absences recorded in the office of dean of women or dean of men, by presenting satisfactory evidences of illness or equally justifiable cause. Only probationary students need slips to re-enter class following an absence. These are cleared through the office of the dean of instruction.

If a student accumulates a number of unjustifiable absences exceeding the number of semester hours for which a course is offered, he may be dismissed from the course with a grade of "F". These cases will be reviewed in the dean of instruction's office.

If a student accumulates a number of justified absences in a course equal to twice the number of semester hours for which the course is offered, the case must be reviewed jointly by the student's department director, and the dean of instruction.

A probationary student (less than 2.0-C) may not be absent without a written permission slip from the office of the dean of instruction. Instructors should notify this office concerning absences of students on probation. Probationary students who cannot justify absences may be dismissed from the course with an "F" grade.

Arrangements for retests must be approved by the instructor of the course.

Students or student groups may be absent to attend conferences and professional activities that are scheduled and arranged by inter-college organizations and sanctioned by the dean of student's office.

Absence from class twenty-four hours before the beginning of or twenty-four hours after the termination of a vacation will be counted as a double absence.

Any student who is ill and desires to go home must be granted approval to leave by the physician or nurse through the personnel deans.

Anticipated absences based on valid cause may be authorized in the office of the dean of instruction, except for students in full time student teaching assignments. Student teachers should clear such absences through the director of student teaching.

Regulations Concerning Examinations

The following policies concerning the administration of examinations have been adopted:

1. A minimum of three systematic evaluations of student achievements shall be made during each semester.
2. Semester grades shall be based on as many factors as possible, such as results of tests and examinations, projects, individual participation in classes, term papers, individual special reports, laboratory work, field work, growth, and the like.

The student himself is ultimately responsible for meeting all requirements for a degree in his field. Accordingly, he should study the catalogue closely on requirements for graduation, arrange his program of studies carefully with the help of his adviser, and maintain an accurate record of subjects completed, together with his grades and quality point average.
